FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER. 25 1914

Meet me at the Fair.

Yes, Susan we'll be at the Fair next week, with bells on.

Many, many more exhibits have been entered already than have been at any previous Fair in this County.

We are all going to take a week off and have a rousing good time at the Fair.

Bud Byers is perfectly willing to buy a bale of cotton, and would even buy two; but he informs us that so far he has been unable to arrange satisfactory terms.—Greensboro Daily News.

Folks are two busy working and talking about the war to think about politics.

Any citizen may obtain copies of the Constitution and the proposed Amendments by applying to Register of Deeds, John R. Jones.

THE SIN OF OM'SSION.

It isn't the thing you do, dear,
It's the thing you leave undone Which gives you a bit of heartache
At the setting of the sun.
The tender word forgotten,
The letter you did not write,
The flower you might have sent,
dear,
Are your haunting ghosts at night.

The stone you might have lifted Out of a brother's way, A bit of heartsome counsel You were hurried too much to say;
The loving touch of a hand, dear,
The gentle and winsome tone, That you had no time or thought for With troubles enough of your own

For life is all too short, dear, And sorrow is all too great For all our slow compassion That tarries until too late.
And 'tis not the thing you do, dear,
It's the thing you leave undone Which gives you the bitter heartache
At the setting of the sun.

Now when everything seemed peaceful on this side the water, pesky Mexico has disturbed the blessed peace of the two Americas by starting another revolution.

Will the canners of this county please send their names and addresses to the JOURNAL.

Glory to God in the Highest!
All honor to the "Old Dominion!" By a decisive almost overwhelming majority, after a bitter campaign featured by lies and every resort known to the politition, the children of Old Virginia forever divorced her from the liquor traffic.
Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina are all in the Prohibition ranks. Mobilize the forces and charge the stronghold at "Boozan-ooga," Tenn.

Announcement

Editor Journal—In the main my friends seem to have understood my position that I would not be a candidate for re-election to succeed myself as Register of Deeds of the County, but a number of them seem to be urging that I am the proper party to receive the nomination and make the race on the democratic ticket.

In the campaign two years ago, I stated repeatedly that I would not be a candidate to succeed myself.
Furthermore those who are candidates before the democratic primaries for this office, before becoming such candidates, approached me to know if I would be in the race and I answered them that I would not. To the end that my friends may understand definitely, and in keeping with my public statements made two years ago, and my private statements made to those who are candidates before the primaries, I take this occasion, to the end that there may be no misunderstanding, to reiterate emphatically that I am not a candidate and will not be a candidate before the primaries or otherwise to succeed myself for this office.

In making this statement, I beg the opportunity to most heartily thank the people of Jackson County who have given me their liberal support and encouragement during the four years which I have served them. I also beg to thank those who have been so kind as to tender their support for my renomination.
In retiring from this office, I hope I am justified in feeling that no citizen of Jackson County has cause to feel that their confidence in me has been misplaced and I assure you that to the extent of my ability I have endeavored to make you an honest, upright, faithful public servant.

Respectfully submitted,
John R. Jones

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to bring back color, gloss, thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scrag-gly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.
